2005 - Little Dolphin Journalist

"Little Dolphin Journalist", an activity co-organized by the Hong Kong Dolphin Conservation Society and the Youth Kwun Tong, has been completed. There were a number of participants in the activity who tried their best to collect information about wild dolphins in Hong Kong during the contest. They learned a lot about dolphins and the importance of environmental protection and nature conservation. Finally, a champion, a first runner-up and three second runner-ups have been selected, and the prize presentation ceremony was held in Sau Mau Ping Shopping Centre on 19 November.

2004 - Chinese white dolphin Painting & Drawing Competition

The Chinese white dolphin Drawing and Painting Competition was organized from February to March 2004 in collaboration with Youth Kwun Tong, a community organization. The activity targeted students of kindergartens, primary schools and secondary schools in Kwun Tong district and it was publicized within the district and on HKDCS website. The competition was also open to students from other districts.

The theme of the competition was "The Happy and Unhappy Chinese white dolphin". The objective of this activity was to increase students' awareness on the threats faced by dolphins in Hong Kong, as well as the importance of dolphin conservation. Over 60 schools participated in the competition, and we have received more than 2,700 entries. At last 24 art pieces were selected and awarded.

The prize presentation ceremony was held on 18 April 2004 at Sau Mau Ping Commercial Centre. On that day, a talk on Hong Kong dolphins was delivered and exhibition panels were set up at the venue to raise public awareness on Chinese white dolphins, finless porpoises as well as the conservation work done by HKDCS.
